

7 DAYS/ 6 NIGHTS IN BALI

Bali has long been famous for its exotic and vibrant art and culture, natural beaches and charming hospitality of the people. Bali has an area of 5, 653 square kilometres.

Most of the Balinese are rice farmers and also grow crops eg. coconut, vanilla, cloves, etc. It is also known for its tropical fruit such as mangoes, bananas, salak grapes, etc.

The balinese philosophy of life called Tri Hita Karana has become part of every aspect of the daily life.

Festivals are important features of Balinese life such as Galungan (Symbolizes of virtue over evil), Kuningan (for Ancestral Spirit), Nyepi or Silent day (Balinese Lunar new year called Saka), Saraswati, Pagerwesi, etc.

Music, dance, drama, art and artisan play an important role in tourism of Bali as tourism and agriculture are part of Balinese way of life.
